

An excellent opportunity has arisen for a

Catering Team

to take over running

“ Broomies Pavilion “

at

The David Broome Event Centre

We are looking for a Catering team to take over the catering at our busy Equestrian and Event Centre near Chepstow in South Wales.

This successful and well established catering business has been thriving for over 45 years and continues to grow. There is also huge potential for this new team to expand and develop business during the winter months.
