Keep it Hidden

Keep it Locked Up

Keep it

DO

Keep valuable items locked away at all times

DO

Remain vigilant. If you see someone acting suspiciously, tell a member of staff immediately

DO

Remember that theft occurs through the day, not just at night.

DO

Put your mobile phone back in your pocket when not in use.

DON'T

Leave expensive items in tack lockers in the stables

DON'T

Forget to bring your hat, jacket and ring bag from the collecting ring.

DON'T

Leave rugs hanging over the rails around the rings as they often get forgotten.

We are working with Gwent Police to reduce the number of crimes at all horse shows in this area. If you run shows and would like more information, please come and speak to us in the office.

Code of Conduct

Please be respectful towards staff, other riders and visitors to the showground.

The lorry park should be quiet from 10:30pm. No generators or music should be playing. When returning to your lorries from the pavilion, please be conscious of others in the lorry park and remain as quiet as possible.

Anyone found causing a disturbance will face disciplinary action

All of these measures are in place to ensure that your time with us is enjoyable and your safety is our utmost priority. With that in mind, if you do break these rules, you will be sent home.
